Hello everyone who loves to play and experiment with color,

I am excited to share with you this eBook of Festive Holiday images and icons I have specially created for FaveCrafts.com. I am particularly excited with the illustration on the cover. As my other passion is stringing and working with beads. I decided to take that love and created it in an illustration.

My world is surrounded by textures, shapes, forms and color. I consider myself to be an all around artist "Creative" working in a varied amount of mediums, and many at the same time. Mediums that catch my fancy, or when working on a particular project that needs to be completed for a client, mixing up my mediums is my thing. It's all about the art and the look I am trying to achieve. With so many wonderful products on the market to color, play and experiment with, why be typical and do the expected? In these adult coloring pages, I would hope you will consider different and unique color combinations and even fill in some of the white spaces with your own circles, patterns and lines.

I also encourage you to share with me your completed coloring pages; I would love them and I would be happy to post them on one of my many social media sites. You can find my contact information on my website, varyCarol.com.

Make your holiday a colorful, safe and happy one!
